Amend the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878.

A.D. 1880.

WHEREAS questions have arisen as to the powers of the Local Government Board under the two hundred and fifth and two hundred and sixth sections of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, to vary or amend any Provisional Order obtained by the sanitary authority of any urban district previous to the passing of the said Act:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and 10 by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Health (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1880, and this Act and the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, may be cited together as the Public Health (Ireland) Acts.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, the Local Government Board may, on the application of the urban sanitary authority of any urban district, vary, amend, or enlarge any existing Provisional Order, notwithstanding that such Provisional Order was obtained previous to the passing of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878.

20 3. The reasonable costs of any sanitary authority in respect of any Provisional Order varied, amended, or enlarged in pursuance of this Act, and of any inquiry preliminary thereto, as sanctioned by the Local Government Board, whether in promoting or opposing the same, shall be deemed to be expenses properly incurred for 25 purposes of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, by the sanitary authority interested in or affected by such Provisional Order, and such costs shall be paid accordingly; and if thought expedient by the Local Government Board, the sanitary authority may contract a loan for the purpose of defraying such costs.

Amendment of provisional orders on application of urban sanitary authorities.
